ICAN Mission Moment

The ONDCP (White House Office of National Drug Control Policy) hosted a roundtable a couple of weeks ago and ICAN/CCYSA (Chandler Coalition on Youth Substance Abuse) was invited to take part. The meeting was an opportunity for ONDCP to learn from the Arizona community what is important and how the office can support efforts to reduce drug use and its consequences as they begin creating the first National Drug Control Strategy of the Trump Administration. ICAN/CCYSA was one of 12 organizations represented. ICAN/CCYSA was chosen to represent expertise in the youth prevention and coalition efforts in the state.

Top focus areas that were discussed as a collective group included:

- Opioid use of youth and adults
- Perception of risk for youth using marijuana (medical, edibles and recreational)
- Accessibility of treatment for youth and adults
