

(Photo Special to SanTan Sun News)

Ogechi Egbo and Alina Valencia participate in ICAN, a free, family-centered youth service in the East Valley that provides programs for youth, teens, families and the community and is accredited by the National Council on Accreditation

Support ICAN on Arizona Gives Day

BY SANTAN SUN NEWS STAFF

Donors can help ICAN: Positive Programs for Youth win a $1,000 bonus by making a $25 donation during the AZ Gives Day power hour, 2 to 3 p.m. Tuesday, April 4. ICAN's goal is to raise $13,000 for the day and any amount can be donated that day.

AZ Gives Day is a statewide initiative for individuals to show their support for Arizona nonprofits through affordable, but meaningful, financial contributions. ICAN is partnering with First Credit Union and L&H Industrial for AZ Gives Day.

Donors give through the Arizona Gives Day website and select which nonprofit will receive their donation. To find ICAN link directly to azgives.org/ican or search ICAN at azgives.org.

ICAN is a free, family-centered youth service in the East Valley that provides programs for youth, teens, families and the community and is accredited by the National Council on Accreditation and was recently named "Outstanding After School Program" by the Arizona Center for After School Excellence. Info: 480-821-4207 or icanaz.org.

Police arrest four in menorah vandalism case

BY SANTAN SUN NEWS STAFF

Four suspects have been arrested by the Chandler Police Department for allegedly damaging an eight-foot high Hanukkah menorah on Dec. 30 in the front yard of a house on West Boston Street. Constructed out of PVC pipe, the menorah was reconfigured into a swastika.

All four were charged with first degree criminal trespass and aggravated criminal damage, which are Class 6 felonies.

Police identified 19-year-old Clive Jamar Wilson and three male juveniles as those arrested on March 17. All four suspects were processed and released pending submittal of charges to the Maricopa County Attorney's Office. Detectives are still investigating.

(Photo Special to SanTan Sun News)

Police arrested 19-year-old Clive Jamar Wilson and three juveniles for allegedly damaging a Hanukkah menorah in December.

AMAZING LUNCH SPECIALS STARTING AT $3.99
MONDAY - FRIDAY 11 A.M. TO 2 P.M.

LET US CATER YOUR NEXT EVENT!

1/2 OFF

Buy 1 pizza or entree and get the 2nd of equal or lesser value at 1/2 price!

Please present coupon at time of order. One coupon per visit. Alcohol purchases not included. Not valid with any other specials. Offer expires 4/14/2017.

480-812-8433 Pizza, Pasta & Wine
590 North Alma School Road • Located in the Granada Plaza

www.Floridinos.net