

ICAN hosts 'Building Bright Futures' breakfast

ICAN: Positive Programs for Youth is hosting its first "Building Bright Futures" breakfast, 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 650 E. Morelos St., Chandler. It is a fundraising event with no cost to attend.

Guest emcee is Erica Cardenas, partner of Cuatro Communications and founder of inspireHER. She is a local model and actor, appearing in numerous national TV spots. Her love for singing has given her the opportunity to perform the National Anthem for the Arizona Diamondbacks and Phoenix Suns.

The breakfast will be a celebration of ICAN's ongoing construction of exceptional youth. Guests will learn more about ICAN and be invited to invest in its work through a donation at the level of their choosing.

Sponsors are Cuatro Communications, Chase Building Team, AlphaGraphics and Avnet.

ICAN is a free, family-centered youth service in the East Valley that provides programs for youth, teens, families and the community and is accredited by the National Council on Accreditation and was recently named "Outstanding Afterschool Program" by the Arizona Center for After School Excellence.
