

ICAN's dreamBIG features celebrity magician

World-renown magician Murray SawChuck will appear during ICAN: Positive Programs for Youth's dreamBIG fundraising gala at 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 2, at the Sheraton Grand at Wild Horse Pass.

The gala is an extension of what is done every day at ICAN—making dreams come true for Chandler's disadvantaged youth. The goal of dreamBIG is to raise critical dollars so that ICAN continues and expands programs so important to our community.

Take a fall "down the rabbit hole" and explore a twisted wonderland of delights. Guests will learn about ICAN youth's dreams and how their unique programs are working to help these kids achieve, beating the odds they are faced with every day.

dreamBIG will feature a cocktail reception with a raffle, five-star dinner with live auction and open bar for the evening. SawChuck, who is headlining at Planet Hollywood in Las Vegas, is the highlight of the evening. He made his mark after his successful run as a semi-finalist on NBC-TV's "America's Got Talent." He has been seen on History Channel's "Pawn Stars," "Masters of Illusions," "Wizard Wars" and VHI's "Celebracadabra."

Tickets are $250 for individuals, or $450 or couples. They can be purchased at icanaz.org/dreambig or by contacting Courtney Taylor at 480-874-7575. The gala is presented by Big Two Toyota of Chandler.

The Sheraton Grand at Wild Horse Pass is located at 5594 W. Wild Horse Pass Rd., Chandler.

complement of programs proven effective in equipping youth to achieve personal and academic success by tackling substance abuse, gang involvement and juvenile delinquency. Specifically, 8 out of 10 young people in the areas they serve are living in extreme poverty. Four of those children will go to bed hungry at night and eight will be using drugs or alcohol to cope with the harsh realities they face. Joining gangs becomes a more viable choice than graduation in the community ICAN serves. ICAN exists to combat these issues and build a strong future for our community. ICAN is accredited by the National Council on Accreditation and was recently named "Outstanding After School Program" by the Arizona Center for After School Excellence.
