Pinnacle Financial Advisors Director of Business Development Scott Bourdo was recognized for his long-standing commitment to serving the community with ICAN's 2018 Henry Salinas Society Heroes Award.

Based in Chandler, ICAN is a nonprofit that provides free, family-centered services to help youth in the East Valley achieve academic and personal success. The Henry Salinas Society, named after ICAN's founder, is a distinguished group of champions dedicated to preserving a foundation for ICAN's future. The Henry Salinas Society Heroes Award is presented to a society member who has made a substantial impact on the organization.

Scott has supported ICAN for more than 10 years, assisting with the construction of the organization's new facility, including identifying the building site, raising the funds, selecting a contractor, and overseeing construction.

Pinnacle Financial Advisors has been a longtime supporter of ICAN, assisting with the organization's investments and providing financial planning advice. Learn more about ICAN here.
