

ICAN: Positive Programs for Youth - May News from the Lon E. Hoeye Youth Center

ICAN Mission Moment

ICAN's Garden Club recently harvested some amazing zucchini! Their spring crop was very successful and they were very proud. Mario in the kitchen cooked up the zucchini and carrots this week so that everyone could give them a taste. Yum!

The Henrys Classic

The Henrys Classic took place last Friday at Quarthaus in downtown Chandler and was a fun time for everyone who attended. The event raised over $11,000 for ICAN programs (which is three times the amount it raised last year). Special thanks to The Henrys for all of their hard work on the event. Another thanks to BOK Financial, the presenting sponsor. Congratulations to the cornhole champions, Keldy Winters and Nick Woodruff and to the best costume champions, Matt Julian and Bill Stead.

Parenting Workshop

ICAN is hosting a free parent workshop tonight at ICAN from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. with the topic "He Said, She Said: Improving Interpersonal Communication with your Co-Parent." This program is presented by Child Crisis Arizona. All are welcome.

Thank You Suns Charities!

Phoenix Suns Charities supported ICAN this year with a grant for our Academic Success

Program. ICAN youth have shown great strides in the area of Academic Success, with 87% reporting that they care more about their school because of coming to ICAN and 88% reporting that they get along better with their teachers.

ICAN is a free youth center in the East Valley that offers programming for youth, teens, families and the community. ICAN's nationally-recognized prevention programming teaches disadvantaged youth real-life skills including goal setting, positive decision making and how to avoid the risky behaviors that are prevalent in the community ICAN serves.
