

ICAN Mission Moment

ICAN has been blessed this summer with a new volunteer who started a guitar class at ICAN! Ray Cunningham has been coming in twice every week to work with youth and teach them guitar. He not only teaches the class, Mr. Cunningham worked very hard to have all of the guitars donated by a number of generous donors from the community.

DPR School of Construction

ICAN youth participated in the 6th Annual DPR School of Construction last week. This annual event takes place each summer and it is an incredible experience for ICAN youth. This year's event was held at ASU's Del E. Webb School of Construction. Youth worked together to build 4 PVC equipment racks and 4 backpack racks. They also had the opportunity to use DPR's VR and AR technology to see what they were building. Thank you DPR Construction for an amazing day!
